

Orange County Financial Planning Days

We've all heard that there's no free lunch, but in these challenging economic times, Orange County-area residents will be able to get free financial planning advice and guidance from professional financial planners at Orange County Financial Planning Day. The event will feature experts from the Financial Planning Association® and highly qualified Certified Financial Planner™ professionals, all volunteering their time and expertise to work with local residents to address important personal financial issues.

Financial planners will discreetly meet with you on a one-on-one basis to answer questions regarding budgeting, credit, income taxes, mortgages, college funding, estate planning and insurance, among other topics. The advice will be offered on a "no strings attached" basis. Each session will be 20 minutes long...and you can sign up for 3 sessions!

>>Sign up now at www.FinancialPlanningDays.org to set your appointment with a professional Planner, on a first-come-first-served basis.<<

Orange County Financial Planning Day is free and open to the public. The event starts at 10:00 am and runs until 4:00 pm. on Saturday, October 23, 2010 at the Huntington Beach Central Library, located at 7111 Talbert Avenue, Huntington Beach, CA 92648. Free Parking.

The event will also feature a Keynote Speaker and twelve 1-hour educational workshops addressing personal finance topics.

>>You attend only the workshops in which you have an interest.<<

- Financial Planning
- Social Security Update
- Avoiding Financial Scams
- Tax Update
- Retirement Planning
- Reverse Mortgages

- Roth Conversions
- Medicare Updates
- Insurance
- Estate Planning
- Investment Basics
- Costs of Higher Education

Event Sponsors:

Sign up at: www.FinancialPlanningDays.org